AN

INDEX

For the Second VOLUME.

A

ABbe Vertot, his hiſtory of the Knights of Malta, pag. 325, 405. His manner of writing hiſtory, 326, 327, 328. The uſes to be made of this hiſtory, 326. His firſt thirteen Books are by way of narration, the fourteenth in the way of annals; the fifteenth treats of the government and ſtatutes of the order, 328
Abſtraction, a operation of the Intellect, 118. Of two ſorts, logical and metaphyſical, ib.
Academy de la Cruſca, reprinting their dictionary, 394
Academy (royal) of ſciences at Paris; a new edidition of their works printing in 5 vol. in 8*vo. at* Leyden, 75
Acre, taken by Sultan Mebec-Seraf, 351
Adrian (Pope) his character for diſintereſtedneſs, 340

Aghvans, their character and manner of life, 39. Their dreſs, diet, ib. Conſtitution, ſhape, ib. Their skill and agility in riding, ib. Their martial temper, courage, and diſcipline, 39, 40. Their manner of fighting, ib. The manners of their women, and their dreſs, ib. Their metropolis, its ſtrength, ſituation, riches, 38. Latitude and diſtance from Iſpahan, 39

Albano (Cardinal) his pride and preſumption loſt the kingdom of Jeruſalem to the Chriſtians.

Alexandria taken and ſack'd by the Rhodians and Cyprian fleet, 355

Alexander the VIth (Pope) poiſons Zizim brother to Bajazet, 360

Alexandri Trajani Petronii de Morbo Gallico, lib. vii. 438

Algiers, our great ignorance of this country, 99. To what cauſes this is to be attributed, ib. Character of the author of the hiſtory of Algiers, and the aſſiſtances he had, 100. Its hiſtory from the earlieſt ages till the 16*th century, when it became ſubject to the* Turks, 100, 101. Its ſeveral names and revolutions; its ſituation and extent, 101. Original of its preſent inhabitants, ib. Their ſubmiſſion to Don Ferdinand the Catholick King of Spain, 101. Their revolt from Spain, ib. Their hiſtory under Prince Salem, 102. Under Barbaroſſa, 102, 103, 104. Under Hayradin brother to Barbaroſſa, 104, 109. Under Huſſan a Eunuch, 109, 112. Under Baii, 112. and laſtly under Haſſan ſon to the famous Hayradin the brother of Barbaroſſa, where this firſt volume of their hiſtory ends in the year 1543.

Aloyſii Loberi Abulani de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438

Aloyſius Pavinus, a Venetian Printer, has printed two books of Mr. Rizetti, one of Opticks, another on the laws of Chance in Games, 391, 392
Alphonſi Ferri Neapolitani de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438
Amati Luſitani de Morbo Gallico Liber, ib.
Ammirat's (Scipio) notes upon the Poems of Mr. Bernardin's Rota, 64
Amadeus (Victorius) King of Sardinia, his encouragement of learning, and erecting a Printing-Houſe in his royal City for the uſe of the Academy, 398
Andreæ Veſalii de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438
Antonii Benevenii Florentini de Morbo Gallico Liber, 437
Antonii Chalmatei Vergeſati de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438
Antonii Fracantiani Vicentini de Morbo Gallico Liber, ib.
Antonii Galli de Morbo Gallico Liber, ib.
Antonii Muſæ Braſſavoli Ferrarienſis de Lue Venerea Liber, una cum Alexandri Fontanæ de Ligno Sancto queſtionibus, ib.
Antonii Scanarolli de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438
Antenori (F.) Panegyrici Sacri è Diſcorſi Morali, &c. 394
Arabia, conquer'd by Mahomet, 330. The other countries ſubdued by him, ib. His firſt appearance in the deſarts of Arabia, 329
Arabians, their dexterity, 167. The Arabian Prince Salem aſſiſting the Algerines againſt the Spaniards, 102
Argelati, his Programma, informing of the edition of the Scriptores Rerum Italicarum, 392
Arguments (three) adduc'd that Mizraim cannot be Oſiris, 364

Arms of the Hoſpitallers ordered by the Pope to oblige the King of Leſſer Armenia, and the Court of Tripoli, to an accommodation, 347. Employ'd againſt the Moors of Spain, 364
Aſia, its ſtate deſcribed by Abbe Vertot before he begins his hiſtory of the Knights of St. John. 328
Atlas Maritimus & Commercialis upon a new projection, 79
Atlas Cœleſtis, by the late reverend Mr. Flamſted, 463
Augerii Ferrerii Toloſatis de Lue Venerea Tractatus, 348

B.

BAcon (Lord) a new edition of his works, in 4 vol. in folio, 159
Bajazet blockades Conſtantinople, 356. Taken and defeated by Tamerlane, 357
Banjans, their numerous Sects, 172
Barbaroſſa (the Corſair.) See Algiers.
Bartholomei Maggii, Bononienſis Lue Venerea Tractatus, 348
Bartholomei Montagnanæ de Morbo Gallico Tractatus, ib.
Baſſora (City) account thereof, 166
Benedicti Rinii de Lue Venerea Tractatus, 348
Benedicti Victorii Faventini de Morbo Gallico Tractatus, ib.
Bentley (Dr.) his ſingular interpretation of the words, Non ego pauperum ſanguis parentum, &c. 385. His opinion that Mæcenas wou'd not upbraid Horace with being born patre libertino, but ſpoke it jocularly, ib. That the word vocas ſhould be read vocant, ib.

Berengarius Fernandus, a new edition of his works, 75
Bernardin Rota's Poems printing at Naples, 74
Bernoulli's Theory of muſcular motion defended againſt the objections of an Engliſh Phyſician, 391
Bianchi, his twelve anatomical and phyſical Diſſertations on the animal œconomy, 398
Bianchi, a Dominican, his twelve Tomes upon the office of the Virgin Mary, 394
Bianchini, his new aſtronomical diſcoveries relating to the Planet Venus, 453. His account of the Farneſe Globe, ib. His deſcription of the Plan and Ornaments of the imperial Palace of the Roman Cæſars, lately dug up in the Farneſe Gardens, 453, 454. and of ſeveral other fine paintings and Bas-Reliefs found there, ib.
Blackmore (Sir Richard) his natural Theology, or moral Duties conſidered a-part from poſitive ones, 80
Bochart, his ſingular opinion of Oſiris being Nimrod the grandſon of Ham, 367. His arguments for this refuted, 367, 368, 369
Boileau's (Mr.) treatment of Mr. Perrault, 207, 208, 209.
Boorhaave's (Dr.) account of an uncommon diſtemper, 175. His account of all that relates to the nature, ſeat, and cure of the venereal diſtemper, in all its ſeveral ſtages and circumſtances, 373. and firſt when recent and affecting the external parts only, 375, 383. then in its more confirm'd and advanc'd ſtate, 427, 437. A catalogue of above ſixty Tracts wrote by different Authors on this diſtemper, lately publiſh'd by him, 437, 439

C.

CAmpiani de Officio & Poteſtate Magiſtratuum Romanorum, 339
Cauſticks no cure for venereal ulcers, 278, 379. Their true cure, 379
Chaſhan Father of Aurengzeb, account of him, 173, 174, 175
Cham of Tartary offers to embrace the Chriſtian Religion, 353
Chriſt, Pilgrims believe their ſins wou'd be remitted upon viſiting his tomb, 331
Chriſtians, how liberty was granted them to build a chapel in Paleſtine, 331. Defeated by Bajazet at Nicopolis, 356
Chriſtopher (Zani) printing a body of moral laws at Trevizo in Italy, 392
Cicero, an attempt of an emendation of a paſſage in the third book of his Tuſculan queſtions, 310. This emendation refuted, 389. The omitting or altering any of Cicero's words, a loſs to the beauty and ſenſe of the Text, 390. Cicero's method of ſhewing after what a different manner the body and mind are treated, 390
Claſſicks, ſelect hiſtories from the Claſſicks, by Mr. Heuzé, 194, 200
Cooper (Lord) Ode to him, by Mr. Hughes, 387
Conſalvi Ferrandi Tractatus Lue Venerea, 348
Coradini Gillini Tractatus de Morbo Gallico, ib.
Cornelian and Agate Stones, where found, 171
Critical and apologetical diſſertation for Sir Iſaac Newton's new ſyſtem of chronology, 210. This continued, 362
Cumberland (Biſhop) his new ſyſtem of mythology, 221. A confutation of it, 210, 362

D.

DIſſertation on the Egyptian Dynaſties, 230, 302
Divorce, allow'd by the eaſtern Chriſtians that inhabit Moſcava, 153
Dionyſii Fontanini de Lue Venerea Tractatus, 348
Dominici Leonis Lunenſis Tractatus de Morbo Gallico, ib.

E.

EAſt-Indies, a new account of them by captain Hamilton, 149, 163. Their laws, 150. their religion, 150, 151. Firſt ſettlement of the Europeans on the Cape of Good-Hope, 151. An account of the Hotentots there, 151, 152. a remarkable paſſage of one brought over here, ib. How the Dutch ſettled there, and how far they have penetrated into the country, 152. Their treatment of the Engliſh ſhips, ib. A remarkable paſſage of an Indian Judge, 156
Earthquake, hiſtory of that at Palermo in 1726, by F. Salvator Ruffo, 74
Epigram upon the Acorn of an Oak, by a Weſtminſter ſcholar, 160
Expoſition of Daniel's prophecy, by the Biſhop of Worceſter, vindicated by Mr. Marſhall, 315
Expoſition of the Lord's-Prayer, by Mr. Jackſon, ib.
Extent of human underſtanding, 48, 113

F.

FAthers. A new edition of ſeveral of the ancient Fathers will ſoon be publiſh'd at Venice, 234. The morality of the Fathers examined

amined and enquired into, by Mr. Barbeyrac; particularly, that of Origen, ib. that of St. Cyprian, 9. that of Lactantius, 14. Athanaſius's, 17. St. Cyril's, ib. St. Baſil's, ib. Gregory of Nazienzen's, 18. St. Ambroſe's, 19. St. Chryſoſtom's, 21. St. Jerome's, 22. St. Auguſtin's, 23. Theodoret, 24. St. Leo, ib. Gregory the great, 26

Father Sirmond, a new edition of his works, 234

Des-Fontaines (Abbé) his Roman hiſtory, in 6 volumes, 236

Foſſils, a new method of digeſting them, ſuitable to their mutual relation and affinity, by Dr. Woodward, 245. Their names ancient and modern, ib. Their natural hiſtory, 245. and the main uſes of the moſt conſiderable of them, ib.

Franciſci Frizimolicæ Patavini de Morbo Gallico Tractatus, 348

Freſnoy (Mr.) new method of ſtudying hiſtory, 312

Friendſhip, character of Mr. Sacy's treatiſe of it. 64. Of Mr. Du Puy's treatiſe of it, ib. The nature, properties, and duties of it, 65. The two extremes authors have generally run into who have treated of it, 65. The original of friendſhip, ib. The definition of friendſhip, 66. Difference between Mr. Sacy's and Mr. Du Puy's doctrine of friendſhip, 66, 67. The different degrees of friendſhip, 67. Friendſhip may ſubſiſt among vicious Perſons according to Mr. Du Puy, 68. Virtue not abſolutely neceſſary to it, ib. The friendſhip of the moſt famous among the Greeks and Romans, examined, 68. Qualities neceſſary to friendſhip, 68. Duties of friendſhip, 71. Several queſtions ſolv'd relating to friendſhip, 72, 74. Character of this treatiſe of friendſhip, 64, 71, 74

Fullers-

Fullers-Earth, the great value of this Foſſil, 254

G.

GAbrielis Fallopii Mutinenſis de Morbo Gallico Liber, 348
Gaſperis Torrellæ de Lue Venerea Liber, ib.
Georgii Vellæ Brizienſis de Morbo Gallico Tractatus, ib.
George I. (King) the hiſtory of his reign, 158
Glands, a new diſcovery of an excretory Duct from the Glands of the kidneys, by Vaſalva, 233
Gori's (Mr.) new collection of Inſcriptions found in Florence and other Cities belonging to the Duke of Tuſcany, with their explications, 235, 456, 457. His explication of Livia's Columbarium, ib.
Gotti's (F.) two new tomes of ſchool divinity, 235
Greek (Accents) a treatiſe of them, 316
Gareneiens's truth of the Chriſtian Religion, 316
Gulliveriana, being a ſequel of the three volumes of Pope and Swift's miſcellanies, 313

H.

HArdouin's (F.) paraphraſe on Job, 319
Henry the 8th (King) defence of the ſeven ſacraments againſt Luther, 319
Hiſtory of the revolutions in Perſia, 28, 85. Of the earthquake at Palermo in 1726, 74. Of King George I. 158. Of the Knights of Malta, 325. Of Hertfordſhire, 315. Of Scotland, 317. Of Mr. De Thou, 316. Of the world, 313. Of the city of Lyons, 320. Of philoſophy, 319

Heuze's ſelect hiſtory from the Claſſicks, 194
Holland's (Dr.) obſervation on the Small-Pox, 371

I.

JAckſon's (Mr.) expoſition of the Lord's-Prayer, 315
Jacobi Catanei Genuenſis de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438
Joannis Almonar Hiſpani de Lue Venerea Liber, ib.
Joannis Baptiſtæ Montani Veronenſis de Morbo Gallico Liber, ib.
Joannis Benedicti Germani de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438
Joannis Fernelii Ambiani de Lue Venerea Dialogus, ib.
Joannis Lembergii de Morbi Gallici Tuberibus Epiſtola, ib.
Joannis Menardi Ferrarienſis de Lue Venerea Epiſtolæ due, ib.
Joannis Paſcalis Sweſſani de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438
Joannis Silvii Inſulenſis de Morbo Gallico Tractatus, ib.
Joannis de Vigo Genuenſis de Morbo Gallico Tractatus, ib.
Joannnis Struthii de Morbi Gallici Pulſibus Tractatus, 448
Ideas, the great and fundamental diſtinction of Ideas according to Dr. Brown Biſhop of Cork, in his new ſyſtem of Human Underſtanding, is into ſuch as are proper and immediate, and ſuch as are improper and mediate Ideas only, 49. Its neceſſity, ib. and importance, ib. yet great danger in a wrong application of it, 50. Explain'd at large, 50, 52. What an Idea properly

perly is, 53. No Ideas of reflection againſt Mr. Lock; thinking and willing not Ideas, but the actions and workings of the Intellect upon Ideas, 53, 54. No Ideas of pleaſure or pain, 54. No Idea of a Spirit nor of God, 55. The ſevera properties of our Ideas; and firſt, thoſe of ſenſation: They are firſt original, 56. ſecondly, they are ſimple, 57. thirdly, they are immediate, 58. fourthly, they are direct, 60. fifthly, they are clear and diſtinct, 61

Intellect (pure) how this diſtinguiſh'd from the Soul and Spirit, 114. Its ſeveral operations; and firſt, that of ſimple Apprehenſion, 114. ſecondly, that of Judgments, 117. The ſix ſeveral operations belonging to Judgment, 117, 120

Jongies, their auſterities, 172, 173

K.

KNez Menzikof, an account of his Riſe and Fall, 461

Knowledge. The ſix ſeveral ſorts of our Knowledge, 121, 122. The improvement of our Knowledge by relations revealed, 128. The extent of Knowledge, 48, 113. The limits of our Knowledge, ib.

Kruſinski (F.) his hiſtory of the Revolutions of Perſia, 28, 85

L.

LAar, the burying-place of Lot, 167

Limits of human Underſtanding, 48, 113

Lock's ſyſtem of human Underſtanding attack'd by Biſhop Brown, 48. particularly his doctrine of Ideas of reflection, 53. His notion of Spirit, 55. His Ideas of pleaſure and pain, 54

Logical Abſtraction, 118. Its abſurdity, ib.

Laurentii Phryſii de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438

Leonardi Botalli Luis Venereæ curandæ ratio, ib.
Leonardi Fuſchii de Morbo Gallico Tractatus, ib.
Leonardi Schmaid de Morbo Gallico Libellus, 438

M.

MArini Brocardi Veneti Tractatus de Lue Venerea, 438
Metaphor, the difference between divine Metaphor and divine Analogy, in three particulars, 63
Miſcellanea Ruthenica, 360
Michaelis Joannis Paſchalii Valentini de Morbo Gallico Tractatus, 438
Millar (Mr. Robert) his hiſtory of the propagation of Chriſtianity, 181
Morery's hiſtorical dictionary tranſlated into Italian, 454
Myrr-Weis, his character, 40, 41. his pilgrimage to Mecca, 41. and his deſign therein, 42. What firſt incited him to rebel, 41. how he ſatisfied the ſcruples of the People as to the Oaths of Allegiance they had taken to the Emperor, 42. The religious enmity of the Turks and Perſians, on what founded, ib. His conduct after his return to Iſpahan, 43. how he laid the ſcheme for returning back into his country, and its ſucceſs, 43, 44. his arrival at Candahar, aſſaſſinating the Governor, and cutting the Gariſon to pieces, 45. his ſpeech hereupon to his countrymen, and vaſt ſucceſs of this expedition, and his being declared Prince of Candahar, ib. His artful and perfidious correſpondence with the Court at Iſpahan all this while, and his falſe repreſentation of the ſtate of affairs to them, ib. back'd by the faction at Court that had procur'd his return to Candahar, 45,46. After this had continued two years, an army at laſt ſent againſt him, ib. but the factions and diviſions at Court entirely tirely defeated its ſucceſs, 46,47. Myrr-Weis's conduct on this occaſion, 47. Effect this had at Court and at Candahar, ib. His death in the year 1717, after ſeven or eight years of his government, ib. His advice to the Aghvans on his death-bed, 87. Aghvans reſpect and regard ſhew'd him after his death, 86

Morality. See Fathers.

Monks, the original inſtitution of thoſe of St. John, and reaſon for their taking arms, 326

Muſſelmen, firſt year of their period, 330

N.

NEWTON (Sir Iſaac) a vindication of his chronology, 210, 363

Nicolas (Pope) uſes his intereſt with the European Princes for undertaking a third Cruſade, 351

O.

OBſervations on the Small-Pox, 372. Remarks on thoſe obſervations, 373

Ode, a new interpretation of the 20th Ode of Horace's ſecond book, 385, 386. An Ode of the late Mr. Hughes to the late Lord Cowper, in imitation of this Ode of Horace, 387, 388

Ointments, emollient Ointments, and the leſſer golden Ointments, of marvellous efficacy in venereal caſes, 381

Opticks, An Italian Author writes againſt Sir Iſaac Newton's Opticks, 255. The plan of his work, 275. An anſwer to ſome of his moſt conſiderable difficulties and objections, 423, 427

Orchanes, Attempts to drive the Knights of St. John out of Rhodes, 355. He is defeated, and his Fleet deſtroy'd, ib.

Order of St. John, the beginning of their naval armament, 352. The military orders of the Spaniard

niards when firſt inſtituted, 341. Order of St. John, their character, 343. their diſſention and breach among themſelves, 343. their reconciliation, 344. their war with the Signior of the Mountains, 343

Order (Teutonick) their inſtitution, 335. All the three military Orders very near cut off in Paleſtine, 449. The firſt inſtitution of thoſe of St. John, 336. their government, 337. the firſt exploit which diſtinguiſh'd them, ib.

Order of the Templers, their firſt inſtitution, 337

Orbis Sacer & Profanus, in 5 vol. in folio, 395

Oſiris proved to be originally applied to the Sun, and in an inferior ſenſe by the Ægyptians to their Princes and great Men, eſpecially to the Son of Jupiter Hammon, 369. Oſiris the 5th King after the Gods in Ægypt, ſo cou'd not be Mizraim, as Sanconiatho and Biſhop Cumberland aſſert, ib. This aſſertion of Sanchoniatho diſcovers his forgery, and that he is not ſo ancient nor ſo authentick a Hiſtorian as ſome learned Men have imagined, 370. Bochart's opinion of Oſiris refuted, and his arguments anſwered, 367, 68, 69

P.

PAdre Franciſco di Hieronymo his life, by Bagnati, 393. ſeems to have wrought more Miracles than any of the Apoſtles, ib.

Paperini (Bernardo) his Poem upon natural phyloſophy, 395. Its great character, and that of its Author, among the Learned, ib.

Pauperum Sanguis Parentum; the true meaning of thoſe words in the 20th Ode of Horace's ſecond book, 386. Dr. Bentley's ſingular interpretation of them, 385

Petri Andreæ Mattheoli Senenſis de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438

Petri Bauri Taurinenſis de Lue Venerea Tractatus, ib.
Petri Haſchardi Inſulani de Morbo Gallico Tractatus, ib.
Petri Maynardi Veronenſis de Morbo Gallico Liber, ib.
Petri Trapolini Patavini de Morbo Gallico Liber, ib.
Proſperi Borgarutii de Morbo Gallico methodus, 438
Popes, their ſtratagem of ſending the Chriſtian Princes for Penance into the holy war, 353. Pope Nicholas uſes his intereſt with the European Princes for undertaking a third Cruſade, 351. Pope Adrian, his character for diſintereſtedneſs, 340
Perrault (C. & P.) their phyſical and mechanical Tracts, 200
Perſia, the late great revolutions there, 28, 85. See Article of Aghvans, Myrr-Weis, &c. How ſurprizing theſe revolutions in Perſia, 29. The true ſtate of the Empire immediately preceeding theſe revolutions, 29—38. Strength and riches of the city of Candahar, 38, 59. The character of Myrr-Weis, 40, 41. of his Brother who ſucceeded him, 86, 87. his conduct and fate, ib. Of Myrr-Maghmud the Son of Myrr-Weis, who murthered his Uncle, and ſucceeds him, ib. his conduct and ſpeech hereon to the People, 87. is declared Prince of Candahar, and General of the army, 88. his ſucceſs on the neighbouring Provinces, ib. his uniting the two oppoſite Factions of the Aghvans in his favour, 88. All this alarm'd the court of Perſia, and determin'd them at laſt to ſend an Army againſt him, ib. their choice of a General to command it, ib. and his obſtinate refuſal, 88. Their ſtratagem to oblige oblige him to attempt it, ib. his character, 88, 89. and fate, ib. The defeat of their Army hereon, and the conſternation this produc'd at Court, ib. A ſecond Army ſent, and another General choſe, 89. By whom Myrr-Maghmud entirely defeated at Kirman, ib. yet even this General, when going to purſue his victory, ruined by the intrigues of his Enemies at court, 90, 91. his fate and that of his Brother, ib. The diſperſion of the Army, and ruin of all their vaſt preparations conſequent hereon, 91. Maghmud's reſolution, progreſs, and victories conſequent hereon, till he became Maſter of their capital City Iſpahan, 92—96. A remarkable act of juſtice with which Sultan Maghmud began his reign, 96, 97. Remarkable piece of juſtice in the Aghvans after reducing the City of Chiras upon a private Inhabitant thereof, 98. After he was Maſter of the capital, the difficulties he met with in reducing the neighbouring cities, 98. Reflections from the whole of this hiſtory, 86, 99.

Procedure, the natural Procedure of human Underſtanding, 48, 113

Purges, (mercurial) their great uſe in venereal diſtempers, 382

Puy (Mr. de) his treatiſe of Friendſhip, 64

R.

REaſon, what it properly is, 124. There are four different kinds of it according to Biſhop Brown, 124—128.

Reaſons (and Grounds of the Chriſtian Religion) an anſwer to the book ſo call'd, in a letter to its Author, 283—302

Reflections on friendſhip, by Mr. Du Puy, 64. On Mr. Lock, 48, 53, 55. On the Fathers of the Church, 26, 27

Religion, the truth of the Chriſtian Religion, 182, 183, 279, 283, 462

Remarks upon an emendation of a paſſage in the third book of Cicero's Tuſculan queſtions, 389. Upon Mr. Tindall's tranſlation of Mr. Rapin's hiſtory of England into English, 257

Revel (Hugh de) grand Maſter of the order of the Knights of St. John, puts the order under a new regulation, 350

Rizetti's (Mr.) new book of Opticks, in oppoſition to Sir Iſaac Newton's, 255, 391. A confutation of it, 423

Rinii (Benedicti) de Morbo Gallico Tractatus, 438

Rhodes, taken by the Hoſpitallers, 353. how long the Knights maintain'd themſelves there, 362. A deſcent made upon it by the Sultan of Egypt, who is repell'd, 358. beſieged by Mahomet II. who alſo is repell'd, 359. beſieg'd by Solyman, 361. taken by capitulation; the contents thereof, 361

Rondelitii (Gulielmi) de Morbo Gallico Tractatus, 438

S.

SAlivation, the only cure for Ulcers in the Palate Uvula, &c. 382

Sanchoniatho, his miſtake about Oſiris being brother of Canaan, 365. not ſo ancient or authentick as ſome learn'd Men have imagin'd, 370. Some account of him and his writings, 228. Set up as a rival to Moſes, ib. his name and remains preſerv'd by Porphyry, 228

Sanganian Pirates, their attack upon an Engliſh Ship, 171

Sebaſtiani Aquilani de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438
Shankers, their danger and difficulty of curing, 378
St. Auguſtin, a diſſertation upon the remains of his body lately found at Pavia, by Mr. Fontanini Archbiſhop of Ancyra, 393. A cenſure of his writings, 23, 24. Of St. Ambroſe, 19, 20. of St. Chryſoſtom, 21, 22. Of St. Cyprian, 9—14. Of St. Cyrill, 17. Of St. Baſil, 17, 18. Of St. Athanaſius, 17. St. Jerom, 22, 23. St. Gregory of Nazienzen, 18
Scriptures (holy) the true method of interpreting them, 320
Solyman beſieges Rhodes, 361. takes it, ib.
Symptoms in the venereal diſtemper; new ones diſcovered daily, 373. pernicious and fatal for want of being known, 375

T.

TArtini, a Printer at Florence, lately publiſh'd Dempſter de Etruria Regali, 396
Templers (Knight) their firſt inſtitution, 337
Teutonick (Order) its firſt inſtitution, 345
Tindall (Mr.) remarks on his tranſlation of Rapin's hiſtory of England, 157
Theatre, hiſtory of the Italian Theatre, 444
Theology (moral) of Peter Catalanus, 392
Turrecremata, a new edition of his body of the Canon Law, 393
Turin, a new edition of Mr. Fanton's tracts printing by his Son the preſent Profeſſor of Anatomy there, 397. Mr. Lama Profeſſor of eloquence there, his hiſtory of the Houſe of Savoy, ib. his Latin Poem upon the new philoſophy, 397. Other books in the Preſs there, 398
Turretin, a new treatiſe of his upon the true method of interpreting the Holy Scriptures, 320

U.

ULcers, how they affect the muſcles, 378. how rais'd, ib. the matter flowing from them, how diſtinguiſh'd, 378. its nature and quality, ib.
Ulrici de Hutton de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438
Valencia, the kingdom taken by James King of Arragon, and the Knights Hoſpitallers from the Moors, 348
Vaſalva, a new diſcovery of his of an excretory duct from the glands of the kidneys to the teſticles, 233
Venereal diſeaſe, Authors proper to be conſulted in this diſtemper, 375. above ſixty in number, ib. This diſtemper often propagated by outward touch, 378
Verona, Marquis de Maffei publiſhing all the works of Cardinal Norris, in 3 volumes folio there, 395
Vertot (Abbé) his account of the original inſtitution of the Monks of St. John, and their reaſon for making uſe of temporal arms, 326. His account of the Knights Templers, and their ſtrength in maritime affairs, ib. The terror they gave the Turks, 316. His account of the magnificence and frugality of the Knights of St. John, 328

W.

WAR (holy) by whom carried on, 333. The incredible bigottry of the Chriſtian Princes in this war, 338. two hundred thouſand Men periſh in this attempt, 339. The firſt inſtitution of the Cruſade, 332. A ſecond one preach'd up becauſe of the Chriſtians Effeminacy, 339. St. Bernard

6 / G 424459 LC 51 1750

Bernard the great trumpeter for the holy war, ib. arraign'd for a falſe Prophet, 339. A third Cruſade promoted by Pope Nicholas, 351. The Pope's ſtratagem in ſending the Chriſtian Princes to the holy war, 353
Wendelini Hoch de Morbo Gallico Liber, 438
Wind, fatal blaſts thereof, 168. Two French Gentlemen kill'd thereby, ib.
Women (Jewiſh) a very extraordinary caſe relating to one, as perhaps ever occurr'd in the practice of Phyſick, 439

Z.

ZIzim, Brother to Bajazet, his army defeated in Bythinia, 359. flies to Rhodes, ib. is ſent into France, 359. poiſon'd by Pope Alexander the VIIth, 360

FINIS.

ERRATA.

PAGE 163. line 8. Houzé read Heuzé; p. 164. l. 24, and 236. l. 6. Diou r. dieu. p. 333. l. 20. Bouillon r. Boulogne. p. 335. l. 33. Bouillon r. Boulogne. p. 395. Veronna r. Verona. p. 405. l. 3. Surpring r. ſurpaſſing.